

Called the “Bible of Fastpitch Recruiting” by youth coaches everywhere, this book (updated annually) has been a trusted resource for softball families and coaches for over 25 years!

Who should use this book?

- Any softball player who dreams of playing in college
- Parents who want to fully understand the ins and outs of recruiting
- Youth coaches who want to help their players conduct a comprehensive and successful college search
- High school Athletic Directors and counselors who need a helpful recruiting guide for their student athletes

Preparing to Play Softball at the Collegiate Level was written by noted recruiting consultant Catharine Aradi. It is available in digital format ($9.95) and paperback ($29.95). To order, go to: www.amazon.com. To read a sample, go to: www.fastpitchrecruiting.com/book.html. For information, email info@fastpitchrecruiting.com. (Buy 10 or more copies and the price drops to $15.00 per copy, plus shipping!)

Preparing to Play Softball at the Collegiate Level provides readers with a step-by-step guide to the college search. It covers topics such as...

- ❖ What's expected of college players and how to decide if playing in college is right for you
- ❖ What it takes to be academically eligible
- ❖ When and how to start contacting college coaches
- ❖ How to identify your “wow factor” schools
- ❖ Why putting yourself in front of coaches is the key to a successful college search
- ❖ How to showcase your softball skills in a video
- ❖ What to expect during the recruiting process
- ❖ The realities of softball scholarships and financial aid
- ❖ A list of over 1200 colleges with softball teams

And much, much more!

“Cathi Aradi’s book on softball recruiting is a game-changer for parents, players, and coaches alike. With insightful guidance, strategic advice, and a wealth of experience, Aradi empowers individuals involved in the recruiting process. Her comprehensive approach equips readers with tools to navigate the complex world of softball recruitment successfully. A must read for anyone looking to elevate their understanding and make informed decisions in the competitive realm of college recruiting today.”

Mike Candrea: Former Head Coach, Univ. of Arizona (8 Time NCAA Natl Champions)
USA Olympic Head Coach 2004/2008